CARGOLUX EXPANDS PRODUCT PORTFOLIO CAPABILITY

News / Airlines

On the occasion of the Air Cargo China 2016 event in Shanghai last week, Cargolux launched an extension to its product portfolio with two new additions, CV Select and CV Select+.

These two features act as an additional layer in combination with any of the eight existing products and are implemented immediately. They can be added to a product through the product speed feature while booking.

The two additions present customers with a number of unique advantages. CV Select features preferred access to premium capacity and booking commitment, all combined with the airline's long-standing expertise and detailed attention to the specificities of different commodities. In addition, CV Select+ gives vastly reduced cut off times of only 30 minutes before departure that customers' shipments can arrive at the airport.

Cargolux's CV Select and CV Select+ offers guaranteed access to the schedules that suit customers and their clients. With both options, Cargolux can guarantee full, optimal airport-to-
