LUXAVIATION HELICOPTERS ANNOUNCES STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP WITH AZUR HÉLICOPTÈRE

News / Business aviation, Events / Festivals

Luxaviation Helicopters and Azur Hélicoptère are announcing today a new partnership which will bring a seamless private helicopter and jet experience to clients visiting the South of France.

Luxaviation Helicopters, part of the Luxaviation Group (EBACE booth number T70), will work together with Azur Hélicoptère to provide helicopter transfers to clients' end destinations in the region.

Luxaviation and ExecuJet clients will benefit from world-class customer service, luxury quality and stringent safety for their entire journey with Azur Hélicoptère, one of France's leading helicopter companies based at Nice Côte d'Azur International Airport and Cannes-Mandelieu Airport.

Azur Hélicoptère's clients will have access to the Luxaviation Group's fleet of more than 260 aircraft, 25 world-class FBO facilities and 14 maintenance centres across Europe, Middle East, Africa, Asia-Pacific, the Caribbean and Latin America, managed by the Luxaviation Sales Office on the French Riviera.

Elodie Mekhmoukh, Sales Manager, Azur Hélicoptère, will operate the Luxaviation Charter Desk on the French Riviera, coordinating all charter requests.

Charlotte Pedersen, Chief Executive Officer, Luxaviation Helicopters, says: "Azur Hélicoptère was our first choice for a partnership on the Côte d'Azur due to their long-term establishment in the area, their high level of quality, safety and client support. We look to partner with companies which match our own high standards in private aviation, and those with which we can establish a long-term relationship to greatly benefit our clients."

Michel de Rohozinski, President of Azur Hélicoptère, says: "This major partnership marks an exciting time for our business and our clients. We look forward to working closely with Luxaviation to provide an outstanding service in the South of France, and we will work together to develop our client service, operational support and future business developments."
