MONARCH AIRCRAFT ENGINEERING LIMITED: LA COMPAGNIE EXTENDS AGREEMENT

News / Maintenance / Trainings

Monarch Aircraft Engineering Limited , the engineering division of The Monarch Group, has extended its agreement with La Compagnie to include airframe heavy maintenance.

Under this extended agreement, MAEL will perform a C Check on the Boeing 757-200 ER at its maintenance facility at London Luton Airport.

MAEL currently supports La Compagnie's transatlantic operation with a full suite of line maintenance services at London Luton Airport. La Compagnie operate an All Business Class Boeing 757-200 ER on this route.

Neil Kirby, Sales Manager at Monarch Aircraft Engineering, said: "It is with great pleasure that we can add La Compagnie to our heavy maintenance portfolio and provide them with additional MROservices."

Yann Poudoulec, Director General at La Compagnie, said: "Whilst continuing to receive excellent line maintenance services from Monarch Aircraft Engineering coupled with their location at London
