ARAB WINGS JOINS CRJ FAMILY

News / Airlines, Manufacturer

Bombardier Commercial Aircraft has welcomed Arab Wings, Amman, Jordan, and Iraq Gate into the family of operators of the CRJ Series.

Iraq Gate entered service in March with its first CRJ200 aircraft, adding two more since, initially operating the aircraft purchased by Arab Wings on domestic routes from Baghdad.

"The excellent economics of the CRJ200 regional jet are ideal to meet the growing demand for transport of Iraqi oil and gas industry which is very active. Iraq Gate now benefits from the addition of the CRJ200 regional jet safe and reliable in its offer scheduled flights, charter and ad hoc throughout the country," said Ahmad Abu Ghazaleh, CEO of Arab Wings.

Arab Wings currently operates using Challenger 604 and Bombardier Global 5000 aircraft.
