HONDA AIRCRAFT COMPANY TO INTRODUCE CERTIFIED PRE-OWNED PROGRAM IN ASIA AT SINGAPORE AIRSHOW

News / Business aviation, Manufacturer

Honda Aircraft Company is set to introduce Certified Pre-owned program to the Asian market at Singapore Airshow. Honda Aircraft Company CPO comes with a rigorous 208-point inspection and a comprehensive maintenance process, ensuring unparalleled peace of mind, backed by an OEM-endorsed product. In addition, it promises direct interaction with Honda Aircraft' experts throughout the ownership experience and facilitates the OEM's direct oversight of every phase of the aircraft's lifecycle. The CPO offering not only upholds the highest standards of quality control and seamless customer experience but also prioritizes sustainability by reducing resource consumption.

Honda Aircraft Senior Vice President & Chief Commercial Officer Amod Kelkar, commented: "We're proud to showcase the progress we are making to expand the HondaJet fleet and services across Asia. The HondaJet is ideally suited to meet the regional aviation demands here. As the demand for high quality light jet travel solution soars, we are dedicated to offering innovative solutions that meet our customers' needs. Introducing the Honda Aircraft Company CPO program
